REDEEMER ACADEMY OFFERS LEARNING CAMP

Redeemer Episcopal Academy is offering something new to the lake area with its summer learning camp, Explore the World, featuring certified instructors committed to providing a place for children to learn, explore and discover while having fun with other children.

“The Explore the World summer program will provide quality instruction in an active, experiential manner so that children learn while they’re having fun,” said Dr. Trish Klein, Redeemer Episcopal Academy Headmaster. “Our certified teachers will take children on an experiential and educational journey around the world.”

Weekly themes will focus on geography and world cultures. Learning experiences will include basic map reading and directional skills as well as fun exercises about cultural and physical aspects of different parts of the world. Sports, music and art activities will also be incorporated into the program.

Explore the World summer learning camp will be hosted at the Redeemer Episcopal Academy school located on Old Phoenix Road just up from the pyramid. The cost for non-Redeemer students will be $225/week or the daily rate will be $65. Students will bring a sack lunch, and snacks will be provided. The deadline for full-time registration is May 1, 2008.
